

Comptroller of the Currency
Administrator of National Banks

US Department of the Treasury

Biographies

José A. Tuya Director, International Banking and Finance (IBF)

Jose A. Tuya has served since 1997 as director of International Banking and Finance (IBF) in the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency (OCC).

IBF is responsible for the development of policies for the supervision of national banks' international activities and of foreign bank branches in the U.S. that are licensed by the Comptroller's Office (OCC). IBF also coordinates the OCC's work with the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision and represents the agency in the Interagency Country Exposure Risk Committee.

Mr. Tuya represents the OCC in the Joint Forum for Financial Conglomerates and the Basel Cross-Border Group.

His prior positions at the OCC have been bank inspector, licensing analyst, and capital markets examiner. He also worked in domestic examination policy development. Mr. Tuya worked on a detail assignment from 1991 to 1994 in the Monetary Affairs and Exchange Department of the International Monetary Fund. From 1995 to 1996, he was detailed to the Office of the Assistant Secretary for International Affairs in the United States Department of the Treasury.

Mr. Tuya received a master's of business administration from the University of Miami, Coral Gables, Fla.

